FROM: Ed Litrenta, George Murray Shipley Bell, LLP
-and-
Sutheat Tim, Director of Legal Services, City of Sarnia

SUBJECT: George Murray Shipley Bell, LLP new location

The law firm of George Murray Shipley Bell, LLP is pleased to announce that it has purchased the former Bank of Montreal building at 215 Christina Street North and will be moving to its new downtown location in February 2020. The law firm has been at its iconic location at 2 Ferry Dock Hill for over 60 years. GMSB LLP is pleased to remain part of Sarnia's historic core at its new location where it will continue to provide quality legal services to the Sarnia-Lambton community.

Chief Administrative Officer Chris Carter would like to thank George Murray Shipley Bell LLP for their long and positive relationship with the City over the years and their commitment and contribution to the City's downtown revitalization efforts:

"The location of the law firm's new offices is a win for the City and GMSB as employees and clients who come to the new office will be able to enjoy the other amenities available within the surrounding area. GMSB's commitment to remain within the downtown core will help us pursue our vision of a vibrant downtown."
